Increase in crimes during railway journeys

†1379. SHRI SATYAVRAT CHATURVEDI:
SHRI MOTILAL VORA:

Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that crimes are increasing during the railway journeys;

(b) if so, the details thereof during the last three years;

(c) whether measures adopted by Government to check the crimes during the railway journeys are sufficient;

(d) if not, whether Government is formulating a special scheme to check the crimes; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI R. VELU): (a) and (b) No, Sir. It is not a fact that crime-has increased in all heads. Cases of drugging and theft of passengers' belongings have increased, whereas other cases have decreased during the year 2007 as compared to the year 2006. However, during the year 2008 (upto September) total crimes have decreased. Details of cases on various heads reported/ registered during the year 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008 (upto September) are as under :-

responsibility of the State Governments concerned which they discharge through their Government Railway Police (GRP).

Railways is supplementing the efforts of the State Governments in controlling crime on the Railways by deploying Railway Protection Force staff to escort trains for security of passengers. The following preventive measures are being taken for the security of passengers :-

1. Important and affected mail / express trains are being escorted along with GRP.
2. The train escorting parties are being briefed to remain extra vigilant in trains at the affected stations / sections.
3. Regular announcements are being made through Public Address System and use of loud hailers at the general coaches of the trains and during line bandobast to sensitize passengers to desist from purchasing / accepting eatables from unauthorized hawkers and unknown persons while travelling by train or at the platform.
4. Regular coordination meetings are being conducted with State Police and Government Railway Police to discuss crime trends and formulate effective strategies to contain crimes.
5. Ladies' compartments of sub-urban trains are normally being escorted by GRP. Special Squads comprising women TTEs and women RPF personnel are deployed in vulnerable sub-urban sections, especially during the non-peak hours when likelihood of commission of crime against women is more.
6. Regular drives are conducted by RPF against male passengers travelling in ladies compartments and the offenders detected are prosecuted under the provisions of the Railways Act.

(d) No, Sir.
